ALL SUSPECTS ARE INNOCENT UNTIL PROVEN GUILTY IN A COURT OF LAW. Certain information and images in this ad are public records assessed through law enforcement incident reports and arrest records. These records are available for review at local law enforcement agencies and online. Old River Peddler assumes all records are accurate but does not guarantee accuracy. Not every arrest leads to conviction. Charges may be dismissed, reduced or changed after the initial arrest. The purpose and intent of this page is to inform the public of suspected criminal activity in the community, to assist law enforcement in deterring crime and solving cases, to foster public involvement in matters of safety and awareness.

VIDALIA MILLS LAY-OFFS

The company, which produces Pima yarn, say the lay-off of 35 employees will allow them to restructure and allow them to keep up with demands- however, the previous employees report that the mill was not operating at full capacity even before the lay-offs. Employees effected by the lay-off report they have not yet received their final paycheck.

CONTROVERSIAL DA APPOINTED AS JUDGE

Shameca Collins, former district attorney, has been appointed to fill the vacant judge seat in a 3 to 2 vote. Her detractors say she is unfit for the role, while her supporters have faith she is the right person for the job.

CANAL STREET BRIDGE

Finally, after almost a year of a 5-ton weight limit being imposed on the Canal Street bridge, repairs are beginning to be made. It's estimated the repairs will take around 100 days to complete.
